DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-22 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-22 of copending Application No. 10/629,056. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because Claims 1 and 3 of the instant application and Claim 14 of copending Application No. 10/629,056 are claiming same subject matters and both are very similar. Both Claims 1 and 3 of the instant application and Claim 14 of copending Application No. 10/629,056 are claiming a backlight assembly comprising:

a lamp assembly including a plurality of lamps, arranged in parallel, each of the lamps including a lamp body, a first electrode formed at a first end of the lamp body, and a second electrode formed at a second end of the lamp body, the second end facing the first end, to generate a light, a power voltage being applied to the lamps through the lamp assembly;

a receiving container to receive the lamp assembly, the receiving container including a bottom face and side faces;

a plurality of sensors, disposed in the receiving container, to detect an operation state of the lamps and to output a plurality of sensing signals;

a lamp driving module, disposed outside the receiving container, to provide the lamps with the power voltage, voltage cut-off module comparing the sensing signals with a predetermined reference signal, the voltage cut-off module providing the lamp driving module with a voltage cut-off signal to prevent the lamp driving module from providing the lamps with the power voltage when at least one of the sensing signals has an amplitude smaller than the reference signal.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Similar analysis is applicable to Claims 2- 22 of the instant application.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 01-03-2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Claims 1 and 3 of the instant application and Claim 14 of copending Application No. 10/629,056 are claiming same subject matters and both are very similar. Both Claims 1 and 3 of the instant application and Claim 14 of copending Application No. 10/629,056 are claiming same subject matters and both are very similar. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both claims are claiming same subject matters and both are very similar, and the additional claim subject matters are very well known in the art and thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have incorporated the teaching of the well known additional claim subject matters in the claim. That's why this is obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
